

Name of Website: Shop 4 Cards

Description: This will be a website dedicated to buying and selling trading cards for a myriad of different games. Users will be able to buy and sell cards from games such as Magic the Gathering, Yu-gi-oh, and Pokémon. Users will be able to filter cards by name, game, and rarity. They will also be able to see all previous orders they have made.

Page Names: Home, Inspect Cards, Buy, Sell, Account

Data being used: The data being used will be a card database containing all available cards to buy and sell for the individual card games supported. That database will be manually upheld and updated by the administrator of the website at the time. There will also be user accounts that are used to track current and previous orders, as well as to list their own cards for sale on the site.
